Summary

- Overall, faculty and staff seem to be satisfied with their experiences at TTUHSC. Most feel that their work contributes to the institutional mission.
- In general, feeling that their work is valued and appreciated is important to both faculty and staff.
- Overall, faculty members expressed the highest satisfaction levels with library resources and their sense of personal safety/security in the work environment. No clear areas of improvement emerged for faculty as a whole.
- As in previous years, many staff members are satisfied with their interactions with immediate coworkers, understanding of job responsibilities, and awareness of performance expectations for their positions.
- Potential areas of improvement for staff include compensation, the ability to report complaints without fear of retaliation, and awareness of staff needs by institutional leaders.
- In reviewing survey results by school, faculty members in the Paul L. Foster School of Medicine expressed lower levels of satisfaction compared to faculty in other schools.
- A clear area of improvement for faculty in the Gayle Greve Hunt School of Nursing is clarity of the tenure process.
- Overall, faculty in the TTUHSC School of Nursing expressed the highest levels of satisfaction compared to faculty in other schools.
- Faculty at the Midland campus also seem to be very satisfied with their experiences at TTUHSC.
- Staff members who are affiliated with CMHC expressed lower levels of satisfaction in some areas compared to other TTUHSC staff.
- Staff members who work in Institutional Advancement expressed the highest levels of satisfaction compared to other TTUHSC staff.

Methodology

The biennial Employee Satisfaction Survey (ESS) was administered to TTUHSC faculty and staff in Fall 2014. The data collection period lasted two weeks for the online survey (October 14-27, 2014) and slightly longer for the paper version to account for mailing times (October 14-30, 2014). Targeted participants included employees with a faculty or staff designation, including working retirees and excluding residents, teaching assistants, and student employees. Survey invitations were sent to 1,165 faculty and 3,934 staff (N= 5,099).

The initial invitation to complete the online survey was sent via email by the Office of Institutional Planning & Assessment (OIPA). A subsequent reminder email was sent to targeted participants one week before data collection ended. Additional reminders were distributed on the TTUHSC website. (Because many CMHC employees were unable to access the online survey from the workplace due to permission restrictions, they were also given the option to request a printed version of the survey and submit it via mail.)

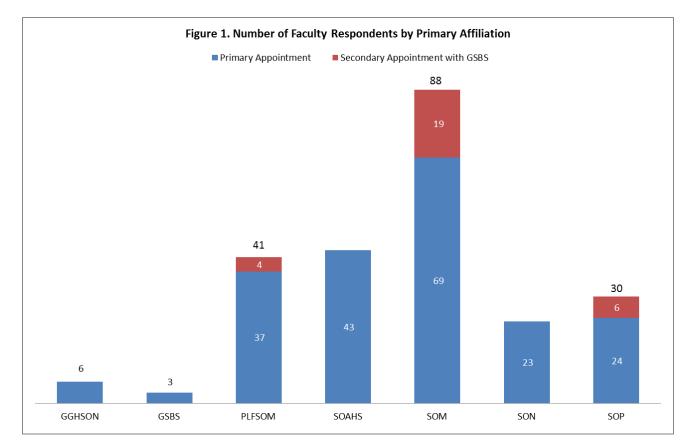

Demographics

When data collection ended, 264 faculty and 1,220 staff had completed the survey, resulting in approximate response rates of 23% and 31%, respectively. This is higher for staff compared to response rates in Fall 2012 (Faculty= 26% and Staff= 25%).

Faculty. According to self-reported data, faculty respondents were affiliated with the following:

| PRIMARY APPOINTMENT | LOCATION |
|---|------------------|
| Gayle Greve Hunt School of Nursing (GGHSON) | Abilene |
| Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences (GSBS) | Amarillo |
| Paul L. Foster School of Medicine (PLFSOM) | Dallas/Ft. Worth |
| School of Allied Health Sciences (SOAHS) | El Paso |
| School of Medicine (SOM) | Lubbock |
| School of Nursing (SON) | Midland |
| School of Pharmacy (SOP) | Odessa |

Figure 1 provides the number of faculty respondents by primary appointment. A total of 29 faculty from SOM, PLFSOM, and SOP reported a secondary appointment with GSBS. A Prefer Not to Answer (PNTA) option was also available and chosen by 30 respondents.

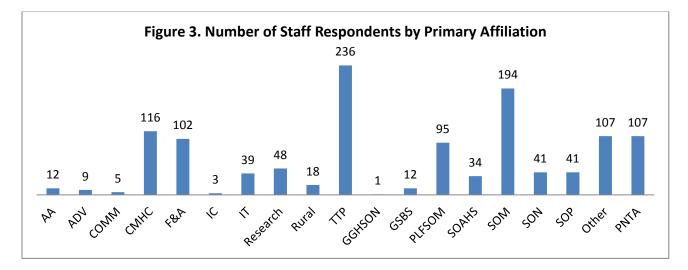

Faculty also provided information related to their positions. Three of five respondents classified themselves as non-tenure track faculty (see Figure 2). Additionally, faculty were asked if they work for the Texas Tech Physicians. More than one-third of the faculty respondents (=96) indicated that they do so.

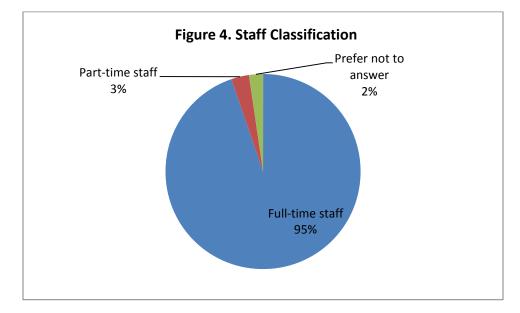

Staff. According to self-reported data, staff respondents were affiliated with the following areas:

| PRIMARY AFFILIATION | LOCATION |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| Academic Affairs (AA) | Abilene |
| Institutional Advancement (ADV) | Amarillo |
| Communications & Marketing (COMM) | Dallas/Ft. Worth |
| Correctional Managed Health Care (CMHC) | El Paso |
| • Finance & Administration (i.e., Business Affairs, Budget, | Lubbock |
| HR, Physical Plant, HUB Operations) (F&A) | Midland |
| Institutional Compliance (IC) | Odessa |
| Information Technology (IT) | |
| Research | |
| Rural and Community Health (Rural) | |
| Texas Tech Physicians (TTP) | |
| Gayle Greve Hunt School of Nursing (GGHSON) | |
| Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences (GSBS) | |
| Paul L. Foster School of Medicine (PLFSOM) | |
| School of Allied Health Sciences (SOAHS) | |
| School of Medicine (SOM) | |
| School of Nursing (SON) | |
| School of Pharmacy (SOP) | |

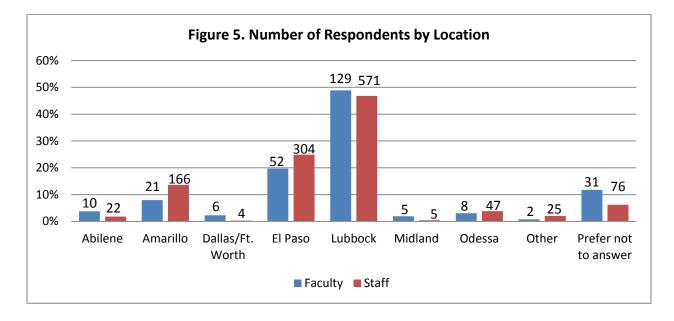

Figure 3 provides the number of staff respondents by primary affiliation. Staff who did not affiliate themselves with one of the given options could select Other. A Prefer Not to Answer (PNTA) option was also available.

Staff also provided information regarding their classification (see Figure 4). The large majority of respondents were full-time staff.

Faculty and Staff. Figure 5 provides the distribution of all faculty and staff respondents by location. The number of respondents is displayed above the columns. Faculty and staff who did not affiliate themselves with one of the given options could select Other. A Prefer Not to Answer (PNTA) option was also available.

Quantitative Data

Faculty and Staff

General. Faculty and staff were asked their overall satisfaction with their positions at TTUHSC using a 6-point scale (1 = Very Dissatisfied, 2 = Dissatisfied, 3 = Somewhat Dissatisfied, 4 = Somewhat Satisfied, 5 = Satisfied, and 6 = Very Satisfied). Table 1 shows the number of respondents, mean, and standard deviation. Figure 9 shows the distribution of results.

Table 1. Overall Satisfaction

|---------|------|------|------|
| Faculty | 264 | 4.75 | 1.31 |
| Staff | 1220 | 4.57 | 1.30 |
| Total | 1484 | 4.60 | 1.30 |

For the next set of statements, respondents were asked to indicate their levels of satisfaction using the same scale. They were also given a Not Applicable option. Tables 2, 3 and 4 provide the following information for the institution as a whole for each item by respondent classification:

- Total number of respondents for all responses (n)
- Mean level of satisfaction (Mean)
- Color-coded graph illustrating the distribution of responses (Distribution)

For all items, the possible range of means is 1.00-6.00. All means are color-coded to highlight areas of strength and potential improvement (Red: <3.00, Yellow: 3.00-3.99, Green: ≥5.00).

Appendices A, B, and C provide the corresponding tables with the percent distribution across specific response options.

Recognition. For the next set of statements, respondents were asked to rate the importance of items using a 5-point scale (1 = Unimportant, 2 = Of Little Importance, 3 = Moderately Important, 4 = Important, and 5 = Very Important). Table 5 provides the following information for the institution as a whole for each item by respondent classification:

- Total number of respondents for all responses (n)
- Mean level of importance (Mean)
- Color-coded graph illustrating the mean and distribution of responses (Distribution) Note: The length of the bar displays the overall mean. Different shades of blue highlight the distribution of respondents across response options. Lighter colors highlight the percentage of respondents who marked lower levels of importance. Darker colors display the percentage of respondents who marked higher levels of importance.

For these items, the possible range of means is 1.00-5.00. Means are color-coded to highlight areas of greater importance (Blue: \geq 4.00).

The length of the bar displays the overall mean. Different shades of blue highlight how many respondents marked each response option. Lighter colors highlight the percentage of respondents who marked lower levels of importance. Darker colors display the percentage of respondents who marked higher levels of importance.

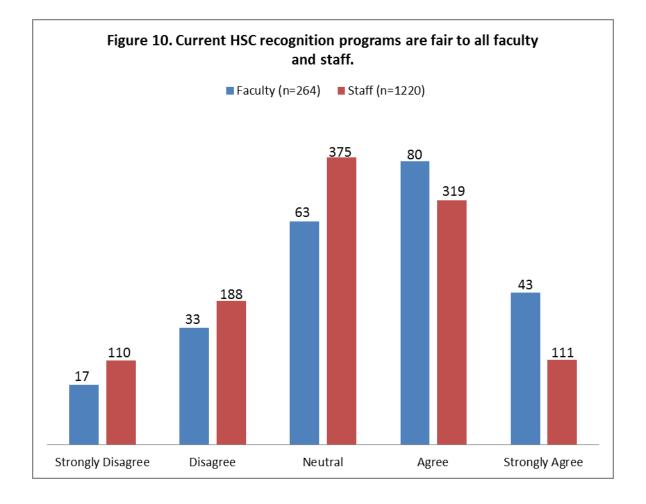

Using a 5-point agreement scale (1 = Strongly Disagree, 2 = Disagree, 3 = Neutral, 4 = Agree, and 5 = Strongly Agree), respondents were asked to indicate their levels of agreement with the following statement: Current HSC recognition programs are fair to all faculty and staff. Respondents were also given the following response option for this item: I am unaware of the current recognition programs.

Of the 1,484 respondents who answered this question, 145 (=9.8%) indicated they were unaware of the current recognition programs. A slightly higher percentage of faculty (10.6%) selected this option compared to staff (9.6%).

Table 6 shows the number of respondents, means, and standard deviations. Figure 10 displays the distribution of results.

Faculty Only

General. The following questions were answered by faculty only. Respondents were asked to indicate their levels of satisfaction using a 6-point scale (1 = Very Dissatisfied, 2 = Dissatisfied, 3 = Somewhat Dissatisfied, 4 = Somewhat Satisfied, 5 = Satisfied, and 6 = Very Satisfied). Respondents were also given a Not Applicable option. Tables 9 through 11 provide the following information for the institution as a whole for each item:

Feedback by Chairs. Faculty were also asked about performance feedback received from their chairs. Figure 11 displays the results.

Those who do not receive regular feedback were asked to evaluate the statement: I would prefer to receive regular feedback about my performance by my chair. Those who do receive regular feedback were asked to rate the statement: Usefulness of feedback about my performance by my chair. Figures 12 and 13 illustrate the results.

Results by Appointment/Affiliation

Appendix J presents survey results for faculty according to appointment. Appendix K presents survey results for staff according to affiliation. The tables provide the following information:

- Total number of respondents for the scaled responses (i.e. excluding Not Applicable responses)
- Mean level of satisfaction/importance/agreement
 - For satisfaction items, means are color-coded to highlight areas of strength and potential improvement (Red: <3.00, Yellow: 3.00-3.99, Green: ≥5.00).
 - For importance items, means are color-coded to highlight areas of importance (Blue: ≥ 4.00).
- Standard deviation

Notes for Faculty Results:

- Faculty who indicated a primary appointment with either the School of Medicine, the School of Nursing, or the School of Pharmacy, were given the option to indicate a secondary appointment with the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences (GSBS). For the first time in the history of this survey, faculty were also able to indicate a primary appointment with GSBS. The column for GSBS combines answers of both faculty who indicated a primary and faculty who indicated a secondary appointment with GSBS.
- Faculty answered most questions only once. However, responses by faculty who indicated a secondary appointment with GSBS have responded to some items twice—once for their primary appointment and once for their GSBS appointment.

Notes for Staff Results:

- The following areas had less than five respondents and are not included for privacy reasons:
 - Gayle Greve Hunt School of Nursing
 - o Institutional Compliance

Results by Campus

Appendix L presents survey results according to campus for all employees. The tables provide the following information:

- Total number of respondents for the scaled responses (i.e. excluding Not Applicable responses)
- Mean level of satisfaction/importance/agreement
 - For satisfaction items, means are color-coded to highlight areas of strength and potential improvement (Red: <3.00, Yellow: 3.00-3.99, Green: ≥5.00).
 - o For importance items, means are color-coded to highlight areas of importance (Blue: ≥ 4.00).
- Standard deviation

Qualitative Data

At the end of the survey, faculty and staff were given an opportunity to provide open-ended comments in response to the following prompts:

- What do you like most about working for TTUHSC?
- Do you have suggestions for making TTUHSC a better place to work? If so, please describe.

Respondents provided 974 comments to the first prompt (Faculty=160, Staff=814) and 790 comments to the second prompt (Faculty=131, Staff=659). Any comments which indicated the respondent did not have a comment (e.g., N/A, none) or were otherwise not useful (e.g., all, nothing) were eliminated. This left 962 and 722 usable comments, respectively. Due to the sensitive nature of some comments, actual comments will be provided to selected institutional leaders only. They will determine how best to distribute them in their respective areas.

Using Survey Data to Promote Continuous Improvement

More often than not, it is difficult to determine what to do with information collected from general surveys like the Employee Satisfaction Survey. It is one thing to collect the data—it is another thing entirely to use the information to promote continuous improvement. The first step in this process is to put the current data into context. Consider the following questions:

- Do these results support other existing data?
- Does additional information need to be gathered? (e.g. focus groups, interviews)

Once you have gained an appropriate perspective, identify an area of potential improvement or a strength upon which to build. Consider what your desired outcome will be. Then, identify and implement a potential strategy for improvement. After a reasonable timeframe, evaluate whether the strategy has been successful. Did you achieve the desired outcome?

Continuous improvement is a process. Sometimes strategies for improvement will be successful—sometimes they will not. Although the ultimate outcome is indeed important, what is equally critical is the documentation of your efforts to make those improvements. Contact the Office of Institutional Planning & Assessment for additional guidance in this process.
