Emerging Challenges in Global Health Security featuring Annette Sobel, M.D., M.S., Major General (Ret., AZANG), Associate Professor, DoME and Executive for Health Security TTUHSC and TTU

During this presentation, Dr. Sobel will describe leadership and clinical experiences in humanitarian and disaster response missions around the globe.

Dr. Sobel will encourage an open dialogue with the audience while describing her multifaceted roles in humanitarian and disaster response to complex emergencies. She will review the principles of leadership and management in unconventional settings that are becoming increasingly common place. She will also provide some 'lessons learned' from practical experience.
